But Failed to Claim Them at the Time That He In-

Several business men in Richmond would like to know where Joseph Frank, of Dayton, O., is at the present time.

He came to Richmond about tas days ago, and registered at a boarding house on Franklin Street, not far from Eighth, and then went out to see what was going on. He went to Whitlock, the tailor's and ordered a sult and overcoat, costing $100.

Thence he went to Rudd & Buchanan's

Thence he went to Rudd & Buchanan's and ordered $1,000 worth of jewelry. He went next to J. R. Hocknday's and bought two farms in Chesterfield county,

"I want to raise Angora goats," he said to Mr. Hockaday, "and I Intend to put $6,000 on these farms, and I want you to go out and manage them."
Then he went to Sycle's and ordered a whole lot of stuff, and he told everybody that he paid his bills on the 18th of the month always.

When the 10th came around he did not below up, and the various business men

When the 10th came around he did not show up, and the various business men upon whom he called sent out an alarm Mr. Whitlock had made the clothes for him, and he wanted to find him, but he was among the missing, and then Captain Tomlinson was consulted. He is looking for Frank.

Unfavorable Conditions.

The American Cotton Oil Company has Issued a strong statement designed to show the relief in some quarters that last year was a poor one with that company to be groundless. Those who have come to this conclusion have compared the earnings of the company for the fiscal year cuding August 31, 1903, with those of the same month, 1902, going no further back and taking no apparently extraneous circumstances into consideration.

ther back and taking no apparently extraneous circumstances into consideration.

The statement explains how many conditions, combined in 1991-1892, to run the profits of the company up to almost abnormal, and unexpected proportions.

In this conclusion are the following paragraphs worthy of consideration:

"The reader may not know that the rize of the cotton crop and the price of cotton seed are not the only factors in the business of the Cotton Oil Company. The size of the corn crop is an element of equal, if not greater, importance. When the corn yield is short a diminished supply of hogs and of hog products is the natural sequence. Such as situation in turn means better prices and a larger market for the products of the Cotton Oil Company, since many of these products compate with the others. Hearing this in mind, and recalling further that the fiscal year 1901-02 followed the corn crop shortage of the cason of 1901 (one of the most disastrous failures of the corn crop on record), it will readily be seen that in that period of twelve months, with prices steadily rising, the Cotton Oil Company got advantages of no ordinary proportions, and a repetition of which could only be expected in the case of a repetition of the conditions which produced them.

"On the other hand, the fiscal year 1902-63 followed the phenomenal corn yield of the season of 1902, and the trend of prices in this period of twelve months was, therefore, downward. The contrast, therefore, is between rising prices in one cate and declining prices in the other case."

Chamber of Commerce Takes Up the Rate Question.

At the monthly meeting of the Board

At the monthly meeting of the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce at 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon Colonel W. O. Skelton submitted a report of the action taken by the special committee of the Chamber in the interest of the "Anderson bill," relating to the question of the extension of the corporate limits of cities and towns in Virginia.

Goodman, manager of the Traffic Burcau of the Chamber, a paper in reference to the coal situation at Richmond from a rate standpoint, and stathough quite a lengthy one, it was heard with marked attention and interest. Upon motion of Mr. Wortham, it was referred to the Inland-Trade Committee, with instructions to hold an early meeting for the purpose of taking such action as may be deemed most effective in the premises for recoving such unjust discriminations as most effective in the premises for re-moving such unjust discriminations as may exist.

INDIVIDUAL EFFORT.

Penitentiary Committee Worked Hard for Their Bill.

Hard for Their Bill,

The bill passed yesterday in the House to appropriate $50,000 additional for improvements at the penitentiary, went through mainly as a result of the persistent work of Messrs. Newhouse, Harman and baker, of Chesterfield, who constitute the Building Committee on the part of the House. These gentlemen were delighted with the result, and were congratulated on all hands upon their fine success. The bill has already passed the Senate, and now only locks the signature of the Governor in order to become law.
